The U.S. Department of Agriculture has evidence that on or about August 29, 2012, you or your organization committed violations of the following sections of the Code of Federal Regulations, Title 9:

2.31 (a) Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC)...failure to appoint an Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee to assess the research facility's animal program, facilities, and procedures

2.31(d) Institutional Animal Care and Use Committee (IACUC) ....DIRECT... failure to approve proposed activities involving animals by conducting a review of those components of the activities related to the care and use of animals to determine that the proposed activities are in accordance with the AWA regulations

The Animal and Plant Health Inspection Service (APHIS) created federal regulations to ensure the welfare of animals and help prevent the spread of animal and plant pests and diseases. Since violations of the regulations can have serious and costly impacts that are detrimental to the public interest, APHIS is providing you with an Official Warning for the violation(s) described above. Any further violation of these federal regulations may result in the assessment of a civil penalty, criminal prosecution, or other sanctions. If you have any questions concerning this Official Warning or violation(s), please contact the APHIS official listed in this notice.
